Marriott Donation - Posted 2/28/14

The Salvation Army Southeast Michigan Adult Rehabilitation Center \(ARC\) has received a generous donation of furniture from the Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center

One of the tallest buildings in the Western Hemisphere, Marriott International announced plans to renovate the Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center.

“We’re committed to supporting Detroit area charities and continually look for innovative ways to give back to the community,” said a Marriott representative.

Over 22,000 pieces will be handed over to ARC for storage and distribution at the nonprofit’s 34 metro locations.

“This is the largest furniture donation The Salvation Army has received in Michigan to-date, and we’re so grateful for the support,” said ARC Executive Director, Rev. Dr. James D. McCall.

The ARC, which operates the nonprofit’s family thrift stores, also manages two adult rehabilitation centers in the Detroit area.
